

YOU are desired to take notice, That there it lately come to this City one Dr. Melatone a Roman: Who offers to cure by Gods assistance in this Nation, as well as he hath done in Italy, France, Spain, Germany, Bohemia, and Flanders, the most part of such desperate and difficult Diseases as are incident to human bodies, because God hath been pleased to indue him with the knowledge of sundry secrets in Nature, whereby he is able to compose the most effectual and exquisite remedies for the health of Man that was ever yet done, either by the Gallenists or Hermeticks, and thereby cures malignant and pestilential Fevers, Quartan Agues, French Pox, and all other contagious Diseases: He easeth the old Gout, cureth the new Gout, and also all pains in the Head; as also the Lethargy, Apoplexie, Vertigo, or Giddiness, Falling-sicknes, Palsey, Pci-sick, Consumption, Astmaes, Plurisies, old Coughs, the Dropsie, Rickets, diseases of the Spleen, Hypocondriac and IHiack passions; the Obstructions of the Liver and Spleen, and cures the Scurvy, the diseases of the Reins and Bladder, and all malignant Ulcers and old Sores in a very short time: He cureth the Leprosit, Gangren, and the distemper called, Noli me tangere, and Worms in Men, Women and Children. He takes the Stone out of the Bladder with such facility, that he secures the parties life (if God in his secret will hath not determined otherwise) and will tell you without searching with any instrument if you have the Stone or no; He cures also Wry-necks and Ruptures, or broken bellies infallibly, with as much ease and speed as may be; He takes off Wens, and cures Hare-Lips exactly, with many other infirmities incident both to men and women, which he mentions not, because he will not be tedious, neither imitate those illiterate Quacks, who speak of many things, and can do but a little according to Art.

The Professor desires such Gentlemen and others as shall see these papers, not wonder at his many promises, because if they please to come and discourse with him concerning his profession, he doubts not but to give them such satisfaction, as they shall not account him an ordinary man, but an experimented Physician.

He sells divers most precious and effectual Medecines, as well for outward as inward uses, at an easie rate, as the Great Orvietan of Rome, Spirits Traichale of Mice, Pills Angelick, Powder Symphatical, his Elixir-vitæ, very sovereign for any distemper whatsoever, both internal and external, and his Balsome, with sundry Extracts, Spirits, Magisterial and precious Unguent, Plaisters and Oyls, and it be concluded that there be a φάρμακον καθόλων, or a universal Medicine, he hath it, and offers to prove it to any one, by reason that it is Universal. Such as have occasion to make use of him, may repair to him with their waters, and it will not be needful that you tell him what your infirmity is, for at the first view of your Urine he will tell you what your distemper is, whether it be curable or not, and in what space of time; yea, if he findeth it incurable he will faithfully declare it unto you, to prevent thereby the cost and charge you would otherwise pay.

The House is in St. Giles street in the fields over against the Churchyard door, and next door to the Sign of the Pelican a Milkincis shop on great Tower Hill.
